

IS RETAIL TOO BIG TO FAIL?

WEBINAR SERIES: RETAIL AND REAL ESTATE

VIRTUAL EVENT | SEPTEMBER 2, 2020 | 12:00 P.M. – 1:00 P.M.

REGISTER NOW!

EXPERTS PANEL

Herbert D. Weitzman is Executive Chairman of Weitzman. In 1990, after nearly 30 years in the real estate business, Weitzman founded the company, a full-service commercial real estate brokerage firm that now ranks as the largest retail real estate services firm based in Texas and one of the largest regional commercial real estate firms in the United States. As a property manager, Weitzman now ranks among the top 50 shopping center management firms in the United States, according to rankings by National Real Estate Investor.

Julie Lynch, Associate Professor of Practice in Finance and Managerial Economics, UT Dallas Naveen Jindal School of Management, and Chief Talent Officer at LYNOUS Talent Management.

Julie Lynch, over the last 20 years, has developed a distinguished reputation as a real estate executive and adjunct professor teaching in top real estate and executive education programs in the United States, including at Johns Hopkins University, The University of Texas at Dallas, Southern Methodist University and the University of North Texas.

Ray Hemmig, Chairman and Founder, Retail & Restaurant Growth Capital. Ray has more than 40 years of experience of executive and board experience in retail and restaurant companies, including Restoration Hardware, Snappy Salads, J.C. Penney, Hickory Farms of Ohio, Grandy's, Ace Cash Express, Buffet Partners and LP (Furr's Fresh Buffet).

Charles Haseman, Adjunct Professor and Consultant, UT Dallas Naveen Jindal School of Management

Charles Haseman is an industry-recognized leader in IT services management and transformation, with more than 40 years of experience in retail and consumer-product-goods organizations. He approaches all engagements from a strategic perspective, aligning solutions with organizational objectives, culture and desired business outcomes.