Constitution of Real Estate Club at UTD

- Article I. Real Estate Club at UT Dallas
- Article II. Statement of Purpose: The Real Estate Club at UT Dallas is a student organization with the goal of connecting members with local real estate professionals, promoting collaboration between members, representing UTD at local and regional real estate events, and providing a support system for members and alumni.
- Article III. Membership: Membership is open to undergraduate and graduate UT Dallas students.
- Section 1. Membership shall be open to students of The University of Texas at Dallas regardless of sex (unless specifically exempt by law), race, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, or veteran status.
- Section 2. Membership must be limited to UT Dallas students, faculty, and staff.
- Article IV. Administration: The officers of the Real Estate Club at UT Dallas will organize meetings, recruit new members, recruit local real estate professionals to speak at group meetings, and ensure the Club remains in good standing with the University.
- Article V. Advisors: Mr. George DeCourcy is a real estate and finance professor with the School of Management. He has been charged with designing all of the real estate courses, creating an MBA concentration in real estate, and recruiting professors for additional courses. He is a licensed CPA with over 30 years professional experience.
